

Information and Points of Contact for NASA’s Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

NASA’s EAP provides confidential, short-term, counseling assistance and referrals to employees who are dealing with issues such as depression; anxiety; family conflicts; marital /relationship concerns; eldercare/caregiving stress; substance and alcohol addiction; major life adjustments; domestic violence concerns; and occupational stress.

During the partial shutdown/furlough, NASA Center EAP providers remain available, including WorkPlace Options. WorkPlace Options is staffed by professional and licensed mental health counselors to temporarily support employees by phone. Please see the below for your Center’s point for contact.
